The Court held a scheduled teleconference on February 27, 2018 with Attorney Lori Griffin for Plaintiffs and Defendant's representative Ronisha Sparks. At that time, Attorney Griffin reported that she found a paucity of evidence of overtime violations in the records Defendant produced, and decided to dismiss the case without prejudice. After the Court explained to Ms. Sparks how a dismissal without prejudice works, Ms. Sparks agreed to the dismissal.

Accordingly, this case is hereby DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
